

Job description

Job title: Asset Management Project Manager

Report to: Cluster Service Product Portfolio Manager

Key responsibilities:

- To improve the performance of physical assets through the delivery of the Total Plant Asset Management (TPAM) services
- To assist our customers to continuously improve the performance of their assets through the implementation of world class asset management best practices, processes, systems and techniques; transferring knowledge and skills, and building the appropriate customer capability to implement and sustain asset management improvement initiatives that will deliver bottom-line results
- The Project Manager role is that of Asset Management Consultant, who main task is the management of customer Total Plant Asset Management projects with direct responsibility for results. The job holder will be required to work directly or through subordinates within a team of internal and/or external Tetra Pak resources to deliver the TPAM services
- To deploy and develop methodologies and tools to enable Customers to systematically execute asset management such that they can be accredited to relevant local and global standards (ISO 55 000)
- To contribute to Tetra Pak technical sales through the delivery of Tetra Pak TPAM contracts and/or solutions
- To collaborate with Key Account Management teams to utilise customer insight and knowledge to identify and new develop business opportunities

Job requirements:

- Engineering Degree (Industrial, Mechanical, Electrical), Masters or MBA preferred
- 10 years engineering/ maintenance/ production experience in a manufacturing environment, with at least 3 years spent in an asset management environment within a high volume food/ beverage or other FMCG manufacturing environment
- Good understanding of impact of maintenance cost on performance and operational cost, in said environment

- Preferably experienced in PAS55 (with Prince 2 accreditation) or other global asset management standard
- Strong leadership skills with the proven ability to set a vision, manage change, develop personnel and strategically plan for continuous improvement
- Must be able to communicate effectively to all levels of the organization (from operators to Vice President level) and have the ability to influence others across multiple levels of the organization
- Demonstrated proficiency in time and project management or programme management. PMP certification an added advantage
- Fluent written and spoken English and Chinese
- Excellent skills in Microsoft Office and alike
- Strong analytical and quantitative skills
- Positive service mind set and customer focus are essential
- Active, energetic and willing to travel frequently within Greater China

