

Job description

Job title: Automation Service Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Plant Automation engineering handover including automation archiving, technical files preparing, system and program taking in.
- Automation in-house engineering including automation specification, hardware configuration, function description and programming
- Automation on-site commissioning, trouble and upgrading
- Plant Automation investigation and optimization
- Customer plant automation caring activities
- Liquid food plant applications Research & Development

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree or above, Major in Automation, Computer or correlated
- At least 2 years automation experience, preferable experienced in Siemens or AB PLC system
- Experience of database is priority
- Good prioritizing and planning skill
- Proficiency in written & spoken English and computer skills
- Frequent travelling will be required