

Job description

Job title: Material Processing Engineer

Department: Food Category IC

Reports to: Assistant Product Support Manager

Responsibilities:

- Be responsible for one welding & Mouding product as technical owner.
- Support several products on Welding & Soldering Process, material surface treatment (Coating) technology.
- Support Engineer design team work Design for Manufacturing.
- Working together with Technical Product Engineer on Design Solution, implementation and trouble-shooting
- Fulfill Engineer project and tasks according to yearly Product Maintainence Planning
- Provide technical support and coordinate with Quality, Sourcing and Production department to achieve targe of Cost, Quality and Lead time for responsible product
- Work closely with colleagues in BUIC Denmark and ensure that knowledge is sharing both to and from BU

Requirements:

(In terms of Education&Training, Experience, Knowledge and Competence)

- University / Bachelor's degree or above, Material Processing Engineering
- 5+ years above of Material Processing experience in food industry or Light Industry
- Profound experience on material defectd anylasis cooperation with outside Research institute & University
- Good mindset of Lean Design and Manufacturing.
- Good team work spirit and leadership capability
- Fluent written and spoken English
- Skill to use Mechanical Design Tool like ProE.