

Job description

Job title: Technical Instructor

Department: Technical

Key responsibilities

- After receiving a series of professional training at home and abroad, conduct technical training courses on company products (liquid food processing & packaging equipment) for internal and customer participants.
- Run relevant technical training for participants from outside China in Pudong training center.
- Provide technical service at customer sites in order to gain and update practical knowledge and skill.
- Develop tailor-made training programs to meet customer needs.
- Prepare instructional and supplementary training materials on assigned courses.
- Translate training materials such as overhead, technical document, course workbook, multimedia CD and so on.

Job requirement:

- Bachelor degree or above preferably in mechanical, electrical or marine engineering. Strong tech background (Mechanical, Ship/Moto Engine, Heat Energy Engineer) will be preferred
- More than 2 years technical training experience with perfect hand-on training skill.
- More than 5 years Practical experience of install, repair and maintain equipment
- Be willing to be Instructor for whole life
- Ability to deliver course in English
- Excellent communication, expression and interpersonal skills.
- Team player and strong personal capabilities.
- Take responsibilities and can work/think independently