

Job description

Position Title: Machine Material Interaction Engineer / Specialist
Report to: Machine Material Interaction Manager
Job Location: Pudong, Shanghai, China

Job Description:

- Be responsible for the package performance of commercially released packages within the Technical Service.
- Actively work with the filling systems and the package value chain in order to take these learning into root cause analysis.
- support Technical Service and Converting Factories in issues related to machine & material interaction
- Eliminate recurring failure of MMI claim to customer.
- Support new projects from Technical Service; Converting Factory and M&PM.
- Drive knowledge transfer to regional technical service.
- Be involved in projects driven by TPCA.

Qualifications

- Good technical education both in the mechanical and the electrical area.
- Good background as a system specialist or senior engineer in Tetra Pak
- Technical Service; have basic knowledge of packaging materials.
- Good reporting and presentation technique
- Good understanding of customer perspective
- Open minded & a good team player
- Good command of both Chinese and English language
- Analytical & strategic thinking
- Results oriented

- Take initiatives and drive activities independently
- Can work under pressure and travel frequently

