The recycling journey

Re-pulping
Empty cartons are mixed with water in a giant blender to separate paper fibres.

Polymers and aluminium
Extracted polymers and aluminium are processed as a composite material, or separately, and then used to make a variety of new products.

Paper
Pulp is dried and pressed into high-quality fibre to create new recycled paper products.

Pulp
Pulp is dried and pressed into high-quality fibre to create new recycled paper products.