

Our progress so far*

Continuous progress

The project will restore up to 7,000 hectares of Atlantic Forest, focusing on the Araucaria Forest by 2030

Reintroduction of native flora

550,000 seedlings from
50 native species planted

Strengthening biodiversity in the Araucaria Forest

Alternative income

30 local smallholder farmers

€300,000 in upfront payments for carbon credits

Economic incentives aligned with conservation

Strategic areas

Creation of ecological corridors

Located within the UNESCO Atlantic Forest Biosphere Reserve

Close to conservation units

Environmental benefits

